

Love and Compassion Ministries

February 1, 2017

Dear fellow brothers and sisters in Christ,

I am so humbled to be called into this ministry. As the New Year has come upon us, the ministry has been blessed with multiple opportunities to serve and be served in our community in 2017. We have been extremely busy with getting our computer operations equipped to manage a new upgrade to QuickBooks 2017, we have completed our taxes and our year end statements went out as quick as we could. We were chosen for the featured charity fundraiser and homeless donation offering at Tarpon Point Marina in January, we also served over 400 homeless at the Stand Down in Fort Myers and just finished being honored by McGregor Baptist Church, for being one of their blessed missionaries they invited to be part of their annual 2017 Global Impact Celebration.

Serve Teams

Homeless and Veteran's Stand Down 2017, City of Palms Park Fort Myers, Florida

Along with all of this wonderful time to share with the global missionaries and church body on how God is reaching our local community, our day to day serving has continued. Every week there are prisoners longing to hear the Gospel from Love and Compassion Ministries and homeless being served at the Suncoast community center in North Fort Myers. Nick is looking forward to taking a small group of foster boys to personally meet and see Big Daddy Weave in concert, a Christian music group this February. God made a divine appointment with Nick and Big Daddy Weave on a cruise. Nick shared stories of the foster boys and now even Big Daddy Weave will get a chance to meet them! Because of this ministry, our local community is touched in so many ways. God Bless you!

With a humble heart I thank God for all of you. Because of your obedience to our Lord in giving, we have been able to do great things. Your donations have encouraged, strengthened and empowered us to keep serving our Lord on the front lines of this great battle between good and evil. Thank you so much for believing in this ministry, for your prayers, generosity, support and for all the love you have shown to our community thru Love and Compassion Ministries. I appreciate you and pray that God will pour out His blessing of good health, love and wisdom as He provides, for you and your family in 2017.

Please continue to pray for Love And Compassion Ministries, our board of directors, all our volunteers and me, as we go about ministering to the people who are hurting and are desperately seeking Jesus. I pray that we will continue to be obedient and faithful to the calling of introducing them to Jesus Christ.

This letter is coming to you in place of our standard newsletter this month. We are in the process of redefining our newsletter and the frequency. To best do this, we would like to hear from you concerning our newsletter and how much it encourages you, or what you may like to see in the newsletter. Please fill out our small questionnaire, so that we can evaluate the impact of our newsletter and how we can make it better. We look forward to hearing all your responses! If you are not already a monthly supporter, I am inviting you to partake in what God is doing on Earth, so that your treasures in heaven are waiting for you. Join us in the victory that Jesus has declared!

To all our monthly supporters, thank you for allowing us to be the hands and feet on a daily basis for our community. You are the unseen hand, that the blessing will flow through and we love you dearly!

Thank you and God bless!
